

● Centre manager Carys Lake and assistant Mary Hughes with the graduates

What the graduates say!

Not one of the eight graduates lived in Gwynedd a year ago. Some had left behind their lives in Yorkshire, Nunneaton, Norfolk and one even from Italy.

● Pippa Dunn lived in Chester before moving to Gwynedd. She now attends Ysgol Botwnnog and is pleased to be able to chat with her friends in Welsh.

● Ysgol Ardudwy pupil Haydn Ingamells particularly wanted to learn the language after moving to Wales and found it easy to learn as part of a small group of students.

● Mario Gwarescio who moved to Meirionnydd from Milan is glad to be learning a third language. He already speaks Italian and English and with an obvious flair with languages there is no doubt he will soon be fluent in Welsh too.

● Many of the parents whose children had attended the trial course said the experience had been a positive and rewarding one. James Dodd from Llandecwyn said his daughter Amelia (right) has learnt a great deal from the experience. "Amelia has really enjoyed this opportunity" he said.

